A MAN KILLS HIS BROTHER

The Borden Murder Case.

FATAL COLLISIONS ON LAND AND WATER.

Two Bicyclists Start Across the Continent.

Special to the APPEAL

A Fatal Collision on the Bay.

San Francisco, Aug. 29.—A serious collision occurred on the bay yesterday and three lives were sacrificed. The colliding vessels were the ship Alameda and the schooner Maid of Orleans. The Captain of the schooner, Charles Treanor, with two of his crew, Jack Spencer and a negro cook, were lost.

Two Cranks on Wheels

Washington, August 29.—H. Caldwell of Columbia, S. C., and Wm. Wynne of Raleigh, N. C., will leave the former place at 4 o'clock tomorrow for a trip across the continent to Golden Gate, traveling on bicycles. They will follow the line of the railroad as much as possible.

Killed His Brother.

Sonoma, Cal., Aug. 29.—Wm. Carriger, a farmer residing a few miles west of this place, was shot and killed by his brother, Boggs Carriger. The murderer was drunk at the time. Family quarrels were at the bottom of the shooting.

Consul to Guaymas.

San Francisco, Aug. 29.—J. Alex Forbes for past fourteen years in United States surveyor General's office received official notice today of his appointment by the President of Consul for the United States at Guaymas to succeed Willard.

Lizzie Borden's Case.

Boston, August 29.—Eli Bence a drug Clerk testified today that Lizzie Borden called at his store three times the day before the murder, for prussic acid and was refused.

A Fatal Collision.

Brussels, Aug. 29.—A collision occurred this morning between Ostend and Antwerp trains. Two were killed and 18 seriously hurt.

Assassinated.

Fresno, Cal., Aug. 29.—Louis B. McWhirter, a prominent citizen, was assassinated at the rear of his premises at 3 o'clock this morning.

The Game Season.

The brute creation must suffer during the first week in September. Next Thursday will witness the beginning of a war upon fowls and beasts foolish enough to get within range of shells loaded to order by Cagwin & Notewares. The Wednesday following will chronicle the slaughter of so much of the brute as is represented by "Whiskey" Sullivan at New Orleans. Mind will have triumphed over matter when Corbett gets through with the "hero of a thousand jags"—John L. Meanwhile, Horace Dorsey continues to load unerring shells at Cagwin & Notewares.

People of limited means can now secure a round-trip ticket to the Lake, including stage both ways a steamer ride around the lake and seven days board at Baldwin's Tallac House all for $22.00, tickets now on sale at the V. & T. R. R. It is a very liberal offer to those whose purse has prevented their enjoying a vacation and at the present rate most any man can offer to take advantage of it.

The name of Mr. Brice does not appear on the committee that is to run the Western Agency of the Democratic National Committee. The Ohio Senator is the gentleman who enthusiastically offered, just before the Chico Convention, to bet $10,000 that Cleveland couldn't be elected if nominated.

The Female Minstrel troupe are expected to capture the town. Aside from the liberal display of anatomy, the troupe possesses some people of great talent, both as actresses and vocalists, and make a hard hit wherever they play.

Sheriff Botsford has received a letter from the manager of Kirman's ranch in Antelope stating that Thos. O'Hare left that place August 16th with $49.60.

Bierce sums up the big prize fight in this inimitable shape: "I fear there will be no fight; the principles have quarrelled."

Willis for Weaver.

O. P. Willis, an old line Republican and former resident of this city, was seen by the writer a few days ago in Sacramento. He said:

"Weaver has a strong following here, and is growing like the devil. Of course I'm for him. When the Democrats tried a few weeks ago to have a big demonstration they had Col. Irish, the most gifted orator on the Coast, address the meeting, but he only had a corporal's guard.

"Lots of his friends told him they stayed away not out of disrespect for him, but for the head of the ticket.

"The Weaver meeting drew a packed, enthusiastic audience, and hundreds were turned away. We will carry a big vote here for General Weaver."

A Beery Reception.

Yesterday Jake Klein sent a keg of his new beer to the APPEAL office and the printers attempted to tap it.

The gas being rather powerful it burst all bonds and with a terrible explosion sent out a stream of foam as big as a man's wrist. As luck would have it a Spring poet was just entering the door and the stream of beer struck him square in the breast, knocking him half across the side walk. It spoiled a large wad of poetry, and the spigot which was blown out nearly caved in a rib.

This incident, although purely accidental, may prove of value to other editors throughout the coast.

Brady Will be There.

On the second of September of the present year Jack Brady will be ready to touch up Abe Myers in the highest style of the pugilistic art. He is in active training and under the care of George Lewis an old trainer, he is losing flesh and gaining muscle every day. He punches the bag rides his bicycle and savats. Although Myers is a hard hitting gamy fighter Brady says he will "give him a run for his stuff," and give his self friends a chance to observe that Abe has been to a fight "outlaw."

A Statement Refuted.

Bob Davis of this office, received the following dispatch last evening: "Deny the article in the Tribune in regard to the Democratic National Committee advising me to help Third Party electors. J. O'TOOLE, Chairman Dem. Central Com.

The Tribune is becoming very unreliable of late as a newspaper, and the APPEAL has found it necessary to refute several of its false (putting it mildly) statements on several occasions.

McLaughlin--Kitzmeyer.

Will McLaughlin of Palms Cal. and Laura Kitzmeyer of this city were married on Sunday last at the Episcopal Church in this city by Rev. John Hyslop. Miss Kitzmeyer is a daughter of Geo. W. Kitzmeyer and a lady that her many friends in this city will be sorry to lose. The APPEAL acknowledges the usual compliments.

Col. Irish who worked so hard for the Post Office site never received a dollar from any source for his work. He did it for the pure love of downing his enemies which he frequently does in good shape. In speaking of the matter to the writer recently he said. My enemies think I'm a — and my friends say I'm a d — fool. So much for being in contact with temptation.

The Aspen (Colorado) Times says "Forty-nine newspapers in Colorado have burned the bridges behind them, politically speaking, and are supporting the People's ticket."

What better evidence is needed to show that there is widespread dissatisfaction with the policy of the two old parties, and that a change is demanded.

The Carson correspondent of the Reno Journal says: Company C of Reno has the most virtuous; the Nationals the handsomest; the Tuscaroras the largest and the Winnemucca the fewest men. If the Winnemucca enumeration is correct that city should also be awarded the medal for virtue.

Judge Goodwin argued in his Salt Lake Tribune that it is impossible to elect Weaver and hence folly to vote for him. Weaver retorted by asserting that it was absolutely impossible to elect a Liberal to Congress in Utah, but Judge Goodwin and his sheet kept right on trying. The Judge subsided.

T. Coffin, Sardis Summerfield and J. P. Woodbury will assist in representing Ormsby County in the State Convention.

Why did not the party put them up in the first place in the primaries instead of putting dummies on the ticket pledged beforehand to surrender their proxies.
